“One of the top minds in the business” – Yahoo! Marketing Team

Dear Alice,

After working with you and your staff I felt compelled to write this letter.

As a business author, I write and speak on topics of marketing and how to make better connections with customers. I have spoken to thousands of business professionals, executives and budding entrepreneurs over the years.

After I am through with my presentations, I take questions from the audience and these questions never fail to discourage me as it becomes abundantly clear that a HUGE percentage of businesses in this country are not focused on making their customers happy.

Here's my point. I hired your firm to help me from a legal perspective to manage my 95 year old Grandfather's affairs (and shortly thereafter my 93 year old uncle).

While the process of being Power of Attorney and caring for an elderly relative was not only new to me it was a bit overwhelming. When I hired your firm I never expected anything but legal advice and corresponding documentation.

The Law Offices of Alice Reiter Feld completely exceeded my expectations. In fact, you and your AMAZING staff blew me away (which is not an easy thing to do, I'm from NJ and don't impress easily). Your firm not only gave me sound legal advice but you provided guidance that could have only come from someone that truly cares. It was very clear to me that the accolades on your office wall were well deserved.

Your staff continually bends over backwards to help even if it has nothing to do with the legalities of my families affairs. If I looked up, “incredible” in the dictionary there would undoubtedly be a picture of Debbie, Jodi, Marisa and the rest of your team as they are the epitome of that word.

As I end this letter and prepare to continue my journey on the speakers circuit I am now armed with a positive story to tell about a law firm in Tamarac Florida filled with caring people who have set the customer service bar so high you would have to be an Olympic pole vault champion to reach it.

I sincerely thank you for the great work you have done and thank you in advance for all the great work you will certainly do in the future.
